

MY 10 POINT PLEDGE

1. You'll deal with me from the first meeting to the final dance. So nobody will give me their version of your vision.
2. You will hear from me (no excuses) as agreed upon, prior to your event to go over final details.
3. You will have me at your event location and set up 45-60 minutes before start time.
4. Another MC won't end up doing your event - if you book me, you get me. Unless, it is a force majeure situation.
5. My audio gear will be professionally presented. I use a state of the art professional Sennheiser EW 100 G3 Evolution Wireless Series cordless microphone.
6. You will see me wearing the appropriate attire to your event. Usually a Tuxedo or Formal suit. Alternatively, I also wear a traditional Indian suits.
7. You will hear all agreed upon requests, as laid out on the prep sheet.
8. You will hear names pronounced correctly during introductions and throughout the event, crisply and clearly, not crackles and pops.
9. You will see me dedicated to my task. I won't be talking on my cell phone during your event or texting friends and family. I am fully present to serving your needs. The success of your event is my mission.
10. It should go without saying; however I figured I would mention it because sadly, many MC's consider it a perk. I won't be drinking alcohol during your event.
